BANGALORE, THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 3, 1910.

PART II.

JUDICIAL DEPARTMENT.

IN THE CHIEF COURT OF MYSORE AT BANGALORE.

CIVIL SIDE.

Rule of Practice No. 144, dated 26*th January* 1910.

The Chief Court issues the following rules for regulating the practice of Civil Courts in the matter of punching stamps, and they will come into force at once.

1. The following distinctive forms of punches are prescribed by the Chief Court:—

(i) For punching labels affixed to copies of documents at the time of issuing such copies, a small square punch will be used.

(ii) For the punching prescribed by Section 38 of the Mysore Court Fees Regulation, 1900, a small round punch will be used.

(iii) For the Central Record Rooms, a small triangular punch will be used.

2. The punching by the issuing Court of labels affixed to copies is quite distinct from the cancellation prescribed by Section 38 of the Mysore Court Fees Regulation.

3. All Courts will provide themselves without delay with square and round punches; and officers in charge of Central Record Rooms will see that the record-keepers are provided with triangular punches.

4. All Judicial officers are held responsible that the orders contained in Government of India Notifications No. 3373, dated the 24th September 1875, and No. 1763, dated the 24th July 1873, as also the provisions of Section 38 of the Mysore Court Fees Regulation, 1900, are understood and acted up to.

V. A. RAJARATNA MUDALIAR,
Registrar.
